

Alpheius Global Enterprises Retail

The fresh produce market has been very productive this financial year. Increased demands for organic and GM-free products has introduced the need for expansion in the Fresh Produce - Fruit and Vegetable supply sector. With a 1% increase in staff numbers to cater for this demand, there is additional pressure on the sales and marketing teams to increase exposure.

